CHURCH MATTERS.

Joseph F. Smith has been chosen president of the Mormon church since the late Lorenzo Snow.

"Brother Joe" H. Hopper, of Perryville, is holding a protracted meeting at Houston School-house, Bourbon county.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold its regular meeting Sunday night beginning promptly at 6:15. Miss Annie Darr will lead the service.

Rev. Don Q. Smith's protracted meeting at Rock Spring church has already resulted in 16 professions and interest is growing with every service.—Glasgow Times.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold their Annual Praise Service next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. S. M. Logan, of Middleboro, will deliver an address on the Mountain Mission work of Kentucky. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Alexander Campbell, born Sept. 12, 1788, died March 4, 1866. Founder of Bethany College. Defender of the faith once delivered to the saints. This is the epitaph on the monument that marks the last resting place of the great christian minister at Bethany, W. Va.

At least 3,000 people were present at a baptizing on Long Creek, seven miles east of Scottsville Sunday. It was witnessed the immersion of 56 converts. This was the result of a four weeks' revival held at Gilead Baptist church by Elder Ham. Ten were baptized last Sunday, making 66 in all.—Glasgow Times.

Rev. J. W. McGarvey, president of "The College of the Bible," Lexington, preached at the Christian church Sunday morning. After the sermon, assisted by Rev. Joseph Ballou, he conducted a solemn, impressive and beautiful service, in which were ordained four deacons, Messrs. Emory T. Beasley, Will H. Shanks, George C. Givens and J. H. Baughman, one elder, Dr. W. B. Shannon, and the minister, Rev. J. W. Hagan. On account of college duties, Rev. McGarvey was compelled to return to Lexington the same afternoon. There was no service in the Christian church Sunday night, because the furnace is being repaired and it was impossible to heat the house.

At the Baptist church Sunday Rev. R. B. Mahony read the following letter to the congregation from his pastor, Rev. J. H. Crouch, who has accepted of a pastoring call to the Baptist church at Palmouth: Dear Brethren and Sisters: With many feelings of sincere regret, but with the profound conviction of duty, after serious meditation and much earnest prayer I hereby tender my resignation as pastor of the Stanford Baptist church to take effect the third Sunday in November next. Do not think dear brethren that this is an easy thing for me to do, or that I have arrived at this conclusion in a hasty and unthought way. On the contrary it has cost me many a heartache and it has been only after mature deliberation and after earnest prayer to God for guidance, that I have decided to sever the sacred relation which I have so pleasantly sustained to each other for nearly five years. You have been very kind to me and mine and the years spent in your midst will be a section in life's highway, to which memory will often revert in a moment of pleasure. May the God of all grace richly bless you, making you perfect in every good work to do His will; and may we all, at last gather around the great white throne of Him who loved us and redeemed us with His own precious blood.

I will not ask the church to take action upon this, until next Sunday.

STROKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Henderson Grinstead, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and one side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles it is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan County, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Rev. Eugene Harrison, a Methodist minister, who was attempting to break into Mr. Harrison's house at Madisonville.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Craig & Hocker's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as if it were the case with pills. Regular size, 25c per box.

The United States Supreme Court upheld the Tennessee law making store orders redeemable in cash.

Broadhead.

Alex Tyree sold a yearling colt to Ben McRoberts, of Indiana, for $80.

Quite a crowd of our young people went to Mt. Vernon Saturday night to attend the debate at that place.

Also Tharp, of Marion, and Henry Tharp and wife, of Loretto, attended the funeral of Mr. Tharp. F. Francisco returned from a trip to Louisville Saturday night.

Rev. Thomas Silenest, the Methodist preacher, assigned to this work, preached his first sermon at this place last Sunday. He takes the place of the Rev. David Holtzclaw.

Mr. A. W. Stuart, the next sheriff of Rockcastle, was in Broadhead last Friday shopping up the boys. Prof. Dickerson, accompanied by his daughter and Miss Berle and Willie Mullins, of Livingston, were in Broadhead Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Tharp, an old and respected citizen of our town, passed quietly away from this world Sunday A. M. Bro Tharp was a Mason and a christian gentleman and was a member of the M. E. church at this place. He was born at the Methodist church. Bros. Pike and Silenest officiated in the funeral service.

William Markberry, of Garrard, spent a few days with Mr. Joshua Dunn's family. Edgar Dunn, of Danville, was visiting his father at this place a few days. Dr. Percy Benton went to Mt. Sterling Saturday night. R. H. Hamm, our traveling man, left for Paris Ky and other points on his circuit Monday.

The Teachers' Association, for this county, met at Broadhead Saturday and was attended by quite a number of the teachers of the county. They had some very interesting discussions in the afternoon. Prof. Jones, Mrs. Huster and Mr. Cramble, all of Barba, were three leading spirits in the discussions that came up in the teachers' association.

Mr. and Mrs. Perander Hatt were in town Saturday. A K. McClary, of the Oak Hill neighborhood, attended the teachers' meeting at this place last week. Bro A. J. Pike returned home from a two weeks' meeting with Buckeye circuit in Garrard county Friday. He reports a successful meeting. He was assisted by Rev. W. M. Kykendall, of Bowling Green. There were 21 confessions and 18 additions to the church.

Mr. Herman Frith, the youngest son of Mr. T. S. Frith and Miss Amy Pike, the 21 daughter of Rev. A. J. Pike, both of this place, eloped to New Albany, Ind., and were united in matrimony Tuesday night. They spent the week in Louisville and returned home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Frith is an energetic young merchant, with good business qualities and only 18 years old, and Miss Amy is one of the belles of our town and only 16 years of age. We wish them a pleasant and happy life, for they have many years to spend together if they should both live to be old.

MATRIMONIAL.

J. R. Bryan, of McCracken, married his son's widow.

Marion F. Stull and Miss Dora Alice Hamilton will be married at K. D. Noaks' today.

John Howard, a widower of 70, was married at Cave City, Mo., to Miss Josie Wyatt, just 20.

James Meridy, of Barboursville, has just wedded his 14th wife, who was the widow of Calloway Cars.

Stephen Reese, aged 74, and Miss Amanda Hay, 70, were married at Brazil, Ind., after a courtship of 50 odd years.

Thomas G. Johnson a widower of 35, and Miss Hilda Hook, 16, will be married at Edward Hook's, near Kingsville, today.

J. P. Mullins, a widower of 57, and a citizen of Rockcastle, and Mrs. Sarah Lee Duncan, twice a widow and 56 years old, were married at the St. Asaph Hotel Friday.

About five years ago Miss Malinda Lynn, and a young man named Albert Tall, were married in Carter county. For a few years they lived together happily, until the young man's father paid them a visit. The daughter-in-law took a decided fancy to husband's father. Shortly after she left her husband, and at the last end of her father's life, she was married to John Earl, father of her former husband.

In anemia and most women's ailments the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and strength out of food is imperfect so that the patient is weak, nervous and dyspeptic. This condition can be corrected by taking a course of HERRICK'S. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

C. N. Barker has been appointed general solicitor for the L. and N. succeeding Walter Hines, advanced to the first vice presidency. B. D. Wardell and T. B. Harrison, Jr., received promissory in the law department.

MIDDLEBURG.

Old corn is very scarce at $3.50.

Rev. Logan Godbey preached at the M. E. church Sunday and Sunday night.

The firm of Jones & Wheat, having gotten through liquidating, have now settled down to business.

Mr. James Wetis is very poorly with pneumonia. W. V. Hatter, who underwent an operation last spring, remains poorly. Mr. Elliott, who was injured in the runaway, is no better at this writing.

The Epworth League met at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The ladies' prayer meeting of the Baptist church held their second meeting Sunday afternoon, the subject for discussion being "Works."

James Wesley has returned from Cincinnati. Dr. J. T. Wesley returned home Friday from Louisville, where he attended the Grand Lodge. We are in receipt of a letter from Robert Kenney at Chattanooga, who has a good position with the Alabama, Great Southern R.R.

We had the pleasure of spending a night with Mr. W. G. Hatter, who lives on the Trace Fork pike, some 24 miles from here a few nights ago "Uncle Will," though 81 years of age, is as hale and hearty as the average man of 50, and his fair hair to a good man many more years.

Only last week our soldiers had two hours' engagement with the insurgent troops in the province of Batangas, Southern Luzon, and were finally forced to withdraw from the field. This was not down on Samar, or some isolated spot in the Southern islands, but on Luzon soil. Are we not at times too busy in our disapproval of Britain's methods in South Africa? Though it is readily apparent that the people are getting good and tired of both wars, in which a great deal of unnecessary blood is being shed.

The Louisville Commercial of Thursday (weekly edition), contained a good likeness and a most creditable write-up of Col. John A. Morrison, of Jamestown, who will be the next representative from Casey and Russell. Col. Morrison was a captain in the famous Wolford's Cavalry and afterwards promoted to a majorship in the 124 Infantry and mustered out the service as Lieutenant colonel of the "Bloody 13th" Kentucky Cavalry. We think it our duty to make mention of Col. Morrison's candor, as we couldn't find a single word who to use who their somnolence was. As the district is overwhelmingly republican and no opposition, he is sure of election. C. C.

KINGSVILLE.

Rev. Dr. Allen, of Danville, returned home Friday, leaving Rev. Barry to conduct the protracted meeting.

Messrs. R. C. Warren and J. S. Wesley, Jr., will address the people of Kingsville at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. Everybody is invited to come and hear them.

Father Brighon, of Outehulm, will perform the ceremony at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Penzabacker and Dr. Benjamin G. Allen, instead of Father Thomas, as stated in our last.

Mr. Sebastiani Chevrolet and Miss Lillie Gooch were married at Danville Hester's Wednesday morning. Rev. Allen performed the ceremony. After the wedding dinner, the bridal couple left for Ludlow to remain a week.

Mrs. D. P. Dixon and two little sons of Somerset, are with her mother, Mrs. B. C. Penzabacker, to the very great pleasure of her many friends. W. L. McCarty is in Cincinnati purchasing fall goods. Mrs. Sarah Waters has returned from a visit to Cincinnati. Dr. B. F. Walter, of Lancaster, will arrive soon to practice his profession, dentistry. Messrs. R. C. Warren and W. S. Burch were in our city Saturday.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power, to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boeches German syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Hocker's reliable remedies at Penny's Drug Store. Get Green's Special Animate.

About the first thing a boy does with a cat rifle or any new gun intended for a mere plaything, is to demonstrate that it will destroy human life.

Happiness depends very much on the condition of the liver and kidneys. The life of life make but little impression on those whose digestion is good. You can regulate your liver and kidneys with HERRICK'S. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

Planagan's oil well in Wayne county, which gave promise of being a good well at 1,154 feet, has been abandoned, as further drilling developed the fact that oil did not exist in paying quantities.

A. W. Stewart is making an active canvass for the office of sheriff of Rockcastle. He is a fine gentleman, an excellent democrat and would make a model peace officer. Here's hoping he will win.

The production of the Somerset Oil Company for month of September from the Bertram Wells Nos. 1, 2 and 3, aggregated 10,935 barrels. The product was sold to the Standard Oil Company at the wells for the sum of $8,364.74.

E. S. Gooch, candidate for magistrate of the Somerset district, is a knob man, raised to know the value of a dollar, and never spent a cent except he first earned it by the sweat of his brow. He will not fool away any of the people's money if elected.—Somerset Journal.

A dispatch from Somerset says: Dan Hester, of Kingsville, and Sam Sims, of Wayneburg, were arrested by revenue officers and brought to this place for trial before United States Commissioner Curo on charges of violating the revenue laws. Hester is charged with having moonshine whiskey in his possession and with refilling packages upon which government tax had been paid. Sims is charged with failure to make proper reports on brandy and removing same from his premises without paying tax. His distillery was seized and brandy confiscated.

WITH this issue the INTERIOR JOURNAL rounds out its first year under its new management. The editor has not grown wealthy in his brief career, but thanks to a liberal constituency he has kept the wolf from the door pretty well and has a little left for a "rainy day." Realizing that the undertaking was a big one, he took charge of the paper with fear and trembling, but he has never regretted the step and hopes he never will. He has had the pleasure of seeing the paper's circulation increase, notwithstanding the gentleman who made the I. J. prominent has gone to other fields. He has seen with pardonable pride the best year's advertising and job printing in the history of the "cheapest and best," and he has many reasons to feel good over his work and be glad that he is living. There is no little work about getting out a semi-weekly in a town of Stanford's size, but the many words of good cheer he has received from the best people the Lord ever made, has made the editor's burden light and inspired him to work the harder to please his patrons. Outspoken, as the INTERIOR JOURNAL has been since it started on the journalistic sea (and as it will be as long as it remains under the present management) the editor has made some enemies of those who desire the truth to remain untold, but if he has intentionally harmed by word or thought a human being, he is not aware of it. Preferring the good will of man to the ill will of a dog, he extends the olive branch to his enemies, who he is always willing to meet half way on any proposition they may suggest. To his friends and patrons he is profoundly grateful and promises them that their home paper during the year to come shall in every way be an improvement over that of the year just ended.

THE democratic ticket that has been served our mast head for months, doing its cordial support of every citizen of the county who has her material interest at heart. The members of it are tried and true democrats and business men and your interest is their interest. They were nominated by a fair and open primary and not named by the bosses in a cut and dried convention as the hybrid republican ticket was. It is a ticket every democrat in the county should be proud to support and one that should win by the biggest majority the democracy of Lincoln have given since the war.

In order that his destitute wife and children might be provided for, Joseph Pabst, an alleged convict for whose capture a reward of $50 was offered, came a friend to deliver him to the authorities and collect the reward for his Pabst's family. A man, with such a heart in him, is too good to be kept behind prison bars and the governor could not be blamed for exercising his pardoning power in Pabst's case.

Former Governor John Sargent Pillsbury died at Minneapolis.

THERE'S NO HURRY.

The stage still holds that to bear home news one must go from home. The Danville Advocate in its last issue announces the candidacy of our townsman, R. C. Warren, Esq., for next year's democratic nomination for Congress in this district. This announcement, we are in a position to state, is premature. The democracy in this neck of the woods has, it is true, been turning its eyes for some time toward our popular countryman as being a strong and good man for an emergency. His personal friends know so well his sterling abilities, his fine integrity and his staunch loyalty to his party, and his readiness at all times to do battle in its behalf, that they would be greatly gratified to see these good qualities recognized and their possessor rewarded by a seat in Congress. They discuss the matter amongst themselves with increasing frequency. They have mentioned it at times to the gentleman most concerned, but Mr. Warren has not as yet said either yes or no. He is, in fact, not given to forming resolutions in haste nor to crossing bridges before he reaches the water. He is, moreover, a man of method who believes in doing one thing at a time and in doing it well. He is at present chairman of the democratic county committee, bending all his energies to organize victory at the elections to be held this year. After these elections are over and after the splendid triumphs in both county and State, which seem assured the democracy, are achieved and are behind us, it will be time enough to take stock of the situation and lay plans for next year's election. In fine, Mr. Warren is not a candidate now, though his friends hereabout have no doubt that in good and proper time he will be, nor, when he is, that he will have as his back the democracy of Lincoln county to a man. In the mean while let us all emulate his example and for the present give undivided attention to our friends—the enemy.

WHEN pictures of Roosevelt were presented in a Richmond, Va., theatre the crowd blessed. "Why is this?" was asked. "Because he dined with a Negro," was yelled out.

POLITICAL.

W. L. FUSON has been appointed postmaster at Ivy, Bell county.

Collector Pringle of the Sixth district, in all probability hold his job.

Judge Paynter decided the contest case from the Hickman-Fulton district in favor of Moss Ayres.

Washington society is agog over President Roosevelt's entertaining Booker Washington, a Negro, at dinner.

Mrs. Rosa Stonestreet was selected to go on the democratic ticket for county clerk.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court declared unconstitutional the "Philadelphia ripper" enacted by the Quaker Legislature.

The period of mourning for the late President McKinley having ended all flags at Washington are at their accustomed places on the staffs.

Southern Congressmen in Washington believe President Roosevelt has done harm to his new Southern department by entertaining Prof. Washington at his dinner table.

The republicans and fusionists decided not to put out a municipal ticket, against the democratic nominees in Bowling Green. They have candidates for only a portion of the county and district tickets.

A man may smile and smile and be a villain all the while and under a pleasant exterior a man may be such a mean republican that he does not deserve the respect of his fellow citizens. What do you think, gentlemen? In an address before the Kentucky Republican Club in Washington, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Vicks declared in favor of a reduction of the Congressional representation in the Southern States. Doesn't that somewhat jar you, who regard him as the incarnation of many virtues?—Harrodsburg Democrat.

THIS AND THAT.

Jeffersonville, Ind., is to have a milk trust.

The Eufaula National Bank, of Eufaula, Ala., suspended.

Calvin D. Crim, a detective, was fatally shot by John Foley, a pickpocket, at Cincinnati.

August Lange, who had been in the army for years, committed suicide because he was to be retired.

Admiral Schley received $5,000 prize money and a medal of honor and it is said the present inquiry will cost him $10,000.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Wilson Alexander sold to Ed Keeton a bunch of fat hogs at 54c.
Crescent failed to lower his record at Columbus, O., but went a mile in 2:04.
E. Dickev, of Cave City, sold about 75 barrels of old corn at $3.50.—Glasgow Times.

L. V. Harkness, of Lexington, sold to T. E. Thomas, of Niles, O., Allie Wilkes, 2:15, for $5,000.

J. T. Cresshaw's Kentucky Artist, sown at the Hustonville fair, has won 27 hives and seven red ties this year.

Tom Pease bought of Sam Ballard a bunch of sh-sheep at $2.25 and of M. H. Beasley some 110-sown hogs at 54c.

George Afford, of Hustonville, bought 10 acres of corn in the field for $108. He thinks it will average eight barrels.

Sally Simpson won the $2,000 Bluegrass Stake at Lexington Saturday. Dorothy Redmond was second and Alice Carr third.

At Mrs. Ballard's sale at Paint Lick Thursday two jacks brought $100 and $125 per head respectively and a young Hereford bull $50.

A man named Sparks is under arrest at Harrodsburg charged with stealing a valuable horse from J. A. Huguely, of Boyle. The horse has been recovered.

Doc Drye, of Hustonville, owns a very fine four-year-old mare, Jessie Dean, by Wicks and out of a Light Horse. She went a mile last week on a rough track in 2:18.—Advocate.

E. P. Woods shipped to Cincinnati Saturday a car-load of hogs he bought in this section at 4 to 5 1/2. Mr. Woods bought of Mark Hardin a bunch of better calves at $7 and of J. B. Foster some heifers at 25c.

Capt. R. M. Jackson has received congratulations from Macon, Ga., on the race of his horse, Arthur W., in the $500 free-for-all race at that place. Arthur W. not only beat the best in the South, but paced the fastest mile ever shown on the Macon track.—Mountaineer Democrat.

Charles Alexander, Jr., of Paris, sold to Salzberger & Schwartzkold, of New York, 350 fine export cattle for Liverpool and London markets for Christmas trade. The price received averages $30.00. That is considered to be the finest shipment and best price yet made.

Capt. T. D. English reports a light supply of common cattle on the market. Thirty 2-year-old steers, medium quality, sold at 28c, 35 yearlings, about the same quality, at same price; milch cows 25c to $30, medium horse mule $75; one pair light horse mules $147; one pair 14-hand horse mules $100.—Advocate.

The Powers Trial.

Powers testified yesterday that he might have told Culton that he would give him $100 and that others interested might do as much if Culton would not testify." He said the military force was only to be used in the event the democrats tried to take forcible possession of the offices before the United States supreme court decided the cases of the contestants.

John W. Ray, clerk to Appellate Judge White, testified as follows: "I saw in Judge White's study when Leander Guffy came in, and he said: 'Goebel will never be governor. He will be killed before the assembly meets this morning.' That was about 10 o'clock, I suppose, and Goebel was shot about one hour later. I asked Guffy if Taylor would be in danger, too. He said: 'No. Provisions have been made to prevent that.'"

Caleb Powers was Saturday put upon the witness stand. He was not subjected to questions, but was permitted to tell his own story, which he did in an earnest and deliberate manner. He admitted attending the various meetings mentioned by Golden and Culton, but denied making the murderous statements and predictions of which he is accused by these and other witnesses. He also denied that Yontsey obtained a key to his office from either himself or his brother.

W. H. Culton told of early plotting and of plans to start a general shooting in the Senate chamber, in which Goebel and other democrats were to be killed, but this was called off on the day decided upon by Charles Finley, who said: "Culton, don't start the trouble today. Gen. Basil Duke says other arrangements have been made to settle the matter." Former Chief Justice Hazlerigg testified that Leander Guffy, son of Justice Guffy, warned him at 10 o'clock on the day Goebel was shot that "the boys had decided the night before to kill him" (Hazlerigg).

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Craig & Hooker, Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

The historic McDowell residence and office, with three adjacent lots and the buildings on them, were sold to John Weisiger for $2,500.—Advocate.

George Gray and Geo. Eaton were robbed at Pineville on the charge of robbing Paymaster Colgan, of the Middleboro furnace.

The amount of the defalcations of the merchant and bookkeeper of the Merchants National Bank, of Lowell, Mass., is $115,000.

3 THINGS ABOUT COLDS

I Never let a cough or cold get the start of you. Disease finds its best ally in our disinclination of "only a cold."

II Find a remedy you can rely on and keep it in the house. A reliable remedy is one that cures quickly, and without the possibility of harm.

III Such a remedy is Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar. It cures the right way. It doesn't dry up a cough. It soothes inflamed surfaces, stops irritation and promotes expectoration. Equally good for young and old. Price 25c.

HOUSE and Lot next to L. & N. crossing on Danville Street for sale, cheap for cash. Mary Lytle.

FOR the benefit of those who seem to think that the bird law is out, we will state that it does not expire until Nov. 15.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—Six per cent. penalty will be added to all city taxes not paid before Nov. 1, 1901. L. R. Hughes collector.

FOR RENT.—The residence on out of pile 1 now live in. Six acres, good garden and outbuildings. Mrs. M. J. Vandever, Stanford.

The Kentucky Colonel has been moved to Mr. Vernon, where W. B. Hudson, formerly of the Harrodsburg Pathfinder, will edit it.

The republicans will have a warm rally at Rowland Saturday night. Messrs. G. M. Davidson, A. G. Faulkner and J. N. Menefee were the speakers.

LAST.—The L. & N. will run its last excursion to Cincinnati Sunday. The round-trip will cost only $1.50 and you are given 12 long hours in the great city.

SPEAKING AT WAYNESBURG.—Hons. R. C. Warren and J. S. Owensley, Jr. will speak at Waynesburg at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, 26th. Everybody invited.

HAVING dissolved partnership it is very necessary for us to have a settlement and you can greatly assist us by paying your account at once. Don't postpone it but come at once. E. T. and J. R. Beasley.

HENDERSON BAUGH has rented his farm near Highland to Jordan Floyd, his son-in-law, and he will likely move to the farm. We are sorry to lose such a clever man and dependable other day democrat. He will leave about Dec. 1.

SALES.—There will be three sales in and near Stanford Saturday next. Mr. Josiah White on the John S. Murphy place, John M. Phillips on East Main Street, and Mrs. Kate P. Miller's on Lancaster Street. See "ads" else where.

CHANGED HIS MIND.—Mr. J. H. Boone, who closed his stable some time ago because he did not like the livery business, opened up again the other day and is very much in evidence with his rigs. An advertisement of his stable will appear in this paper next issue.

ED WILKINSON, the tonsorial artist, has yielded to the solicitation of friends and will run for police judge. Mr. Wilkinson is a clever gentleman, a democrat in whom there is no guile and would make a capital police judge. Judge Carson is also a candidate for that office.

MALCOLM WISNER is thinking seriously of building a handsome opera house on the site of the Stodghill stable, Fourth and Main.—Danville News.

We would advise the gentleman to think very seriously and decide not to proposition and then decide not to build, unless he has a barrel of money to lose. One opera house is one too many for a village like Danville.

THE Hustonville Tribe of Red Men installed the following officers Monday night: Jones Baughman, sachem; Frank North, prophet; James Reed, Jr., saganaw; Dr. O. S. Williams, Jr., saganaw; Burdette Powell, keeper of wampum; W. S. Huffman, keeper of records; and Bart Shevemaker, collector of wampum. After the installation had been gone through with the entire society was requested to the hospitable home of Mr. Charles Wheeler where an elegant supper, prepared under the supervision of Miss Mattie Dinwiddie, was served.—Hustonville cor. Advocate.

WEDDING presents in endless variety at Hamilton's.

LARGE assortment of presents at Embury & Engleman's.

New walking skirts in pretty chalk stripes at Severance & Sons'.

ONLY $2.25 for men's box calf kid lined shoes at Geo. H. Harris & Co.'s.

BARN BURNED.—The barn belonging to Mr. George D. Boone, of the Walnut Flat section, burned Sunday afternoon together with some feed, a mule and a big fat hog. It is not known how the fire started.

MR. W. L. HERRIN, democratic nominee for jailer, requests us to say that owing to the illness of his son, he will not be able to make as active a canvass as he would like to, but that his friends must not forget him because he does not call on them.

The County Meeting held at Mt. Moriah church, Highland, Saturday was a success in every particular. An immense crowd was present and the visitors were royally entertained. An interesting program was carried out and everybody had a good time. The collections of the day amounted to $31.

BADLY BURNED.—Frank Johnson, a nephew of Embury and James Heasley, of this town, was badly burned while en route to New York with the magnificent horse, Comus, which recently sold in Lexington for $3,400 and which burned in the train fire. The car containing Mr. Johnson and the horse was next to the one with powder in it and a crash caused an explosion.

ABOUT THE CANDIDACY.—Compare the ticket offered by the democrats for your support with that the republicans have put out and you are bound to admit that the one under the rooster is far superior in every respect. To individualism, stand Judge Bailey and his republican opponent side by side and the latter is bound to suffer by the comparison. The former has proven his ability by making the best county judge that Lincoln has had in the last half century. What has Mr. Faulkner done to convince any one that he would make even a second rate official? In the Baughman and Menefee race for sheriff is not there every reason to believe that the former would make a good officer and let us not in sympathy and in common with the better element of Lincoln county's taxpayers? He represents a party composed almost exclusively of white people, who pay more than three-fourths of the taxes of the county, while the republican candidate represents a party whose base and sinner is the colored voter. Besides, Mr. Baughman is a democrat, tried and true, and his opponent is a "latency republican," who has probably drawn more money from the democratic party than from the republican party. The former terms he was sheriff than any man in the good old county of Lincoln. True Mr. Menefee made a good sheriff, but no better than Mr. Thomas D. Newland, or the present incumbent, Mr. Samuel M. Owens, or no better than we believe Mr. Baughman will make. A success at whatever he puts his hands to, there's no doubt, we believe, that he will make a success as high sheriff. Between Hon. M. F. North and Hon. B. B. King there is little or no comparison, so much better timber for the office he seeks is the former. Mr. North made a brilliant record while he was as Frankfort and having had experience he will be able to do much for his constituency in the Legislature. Mr. King is a clever man, but we can not believe that he was created to make laws for his fellow-men. It is an assessor's race. It seems that Mr. M. G. Reynolds has already distanced Mr. Holtzman, who is no sprinter at all compared with his competitor. Mr. Reynolds has made a most excellent deputy sheriff, is a democrat in all the word implies and that he will make an efficient assessor, no one will gainsay. Mr. W. L. Herrin, familiarly known as "Ike" Herrin, is an old-fashioned favorite in the jailer's race and what he should and will do for Mr. Cy Walls will be a plenty. A clean man in every respect, he is very popular in the East End, where he lives and his friends at and around Crab Orchard say he is going to carry the two precincts there by a good majority. He is a man of a generous good race in the primary, but that merely warmed him up for the final race, which he is sure to win as the 5th of November is to come. The four democratic nominees for magistrate, Messrs. James A. Daddier, W. D. Wells, F. R. Compton and G. A. Smith, are gentlemen worthy the office they aspire and are so far superior in ability to the republicans who oppose them as to make a comparison very odious indeed to the latter. M. S. Preston, D. K. Harris, Timothy Root and Pedro Green are the four democrats who desire to serve the people in the capacity of constables and all of them are well equipped to do credit both to themselves and the party they represent. That the whole democratic ticket will win we have every reason to believe, but in order to make success absolutely certain let every democrat be that he gets to the polls and that his democratic neighbors do likewise. The republicans are well organized and are using every effort to win, but it is in the power of the democrats to defeat them, and defeat them they must.

OUR HOBBY: Underwear for everybody. Severance & Sons.

THREE of the most useful household articles for only 25c. Geo. H. Harris & Co.

MR. E. C. MONTGOMERY has opened a butcher shop in the old bar room under the Myers House.

WE have plenty of all kinds of feed such as hay, corn, oats and shipstuffs. Cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

LEO BROOKER—Willie Herrin, son of W. L. Herrin, who will be Lincoln's next jailer, fell from a chestnut tree near Crab Orchard and broke one of his legs.

The Broadhead fair failed to declare a dividend, to the disappointment of its stockholders. It was generally believed that they would declare one of at least 25 per cent.

SPEAKING AT KINGSVILLE.—Hons. T. C. Warren and J. S. Owensley, Jr. will speak at Kingsville at 2 P. M. Saturday, Oct. 26. You are cordially invited to hear them.

BIG SALE.—Dr. J. B. Owensley sold to J. L. Williams, of Virginia, yesterday the Sowell Givens farm of 500 acres, near Knob Lick, for $30,000. Dr. Owensley bought the farm a year ago for $25,000.

The Warren Grigsby Chapter, U. D. C., will give a Halloween party at Owensley's Hall, Oct. 31. A small admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to come and spend an enjoyable evening.

The ticket for the Nov. 10 election will be found on our first page. Look at it and see if you don't think that the one under the rooster is by far the better. You will notice that Eliza Fenton's name appears in the list of candidates under the log cabin. He was nominated here Saturday.

WANTS DAMAGES.—Morris Fred, proprietor of the Farmers Hotel Mill, tells us that he will bring suit for damages against W. H. Trayler, the well-known distiller, for charging that he beat him out of $1,000 while he, Fred, ran Trayler's door and mutual exchange here. Mr. Robert Harding, of Danville, will represent Mr. Fred, who will sue for $10,000.
